

Salute to the CLASS of 2020

Live your life each day
as you would climb a mountain.
An occasional glance
towards the summit
keeps the goal in mind,
but many beautiful scenes
are to be observed
from each new vantage point.

Mtn. Heritage Evening of Excellence scholarship award presentations held at Facebook Live event

This year's Evening of Excellence at Mountain Heritage High School may have looked a little different than in years past, but the Class of 2020 still shined.

Evening of Excellence is the high school's annual celebration of scholarships earned by the Senior class; this year, due to COVID-19 restrictions, the event was held as a Facebook Live event.

This year's Senior class has reported earning over $2 million dollars in scholarships. The scholarships have come from national organizations, colleges and universities as well as from several, local organizations and individuals.

"We are blessed in Yancey County to have such generous individuals and groups in our community; they honor our hardest working and most deserving students with a sizable amount of scholarship funding," said Mountain Heritage Principal Kevin Huskins.

"To all the groups and individuals who gave scholarships to our students, Mountain Heritage is grateful for your continued benevolence and partnership as we work to help our students succeed," Huskins said.

Following is a list of scholarship awards presented that evening and thus far:

Alexandria Briggs: SECU "People Helping People" Scholarship $10,000

Alexandria Briggs: Appalachian College Opportunity Grant $2,000

Alexandria Briggs: Appalachian State GEAR UP scholarship $1,000

Alexis Vance Roan Scholar $100,000

Ashlyn Robinson Dare to Dream $1,000

Aubrey Laws Lloyd and Mildred Bryson Memorial Scholarship $2,800

Aubrey Laws Kevin Ashton Memorial $500

Aubrey Laws Pensacola Men's Club $500

Brian Gutierrez Friends of the Library $1,000

Brian Gutierrez James Owens Memorial $500

Bryce Miller CC Ralph and Maxine Gwaltney Scholarship $1,000

Bryce Miller Freddy Brown Memorial Scholarship $1,000

Cabel Jarret Johnson & Wales University Presidential Academic Scholarship $13,500

Cabel Jarrett App State University Presidential Academic Award $8,000

Cabel Jarrett Mississippi State academic Excellence Scholarship $40,000

Cabel Jarrett Centre College, Endowment Grant $9,200

Yancey School Superintendent Kathy Amos helped deliver yard signs for seniors to display at their homes. She is pictured with Juana Chavez, senior class president. The signs congratulating the Class of 2020 were provided to each student by the Yancey County Board of Education. The signs feature a photo of the entire class accompanied by the wording "We Are Heritage" and "#mhbethegood." This is just one of the special surprises the school system and community planned to honor the Mountain Heritage High School Class of 2020 that missed a big part of their senior year activities.

Burnsville's Gillian Gavenus awarded $50,000 Inaugural McRae Scholarship at UNC Asheville

UNC Asheville recently announced that the Inaugural McRae and Provost Scholars were awarded nearly $570,000.

UNC Asheville awarded five Selby and Richard McRae Scholarships to exceptional students from the incoming Class of 2024. Each student, including Gillian Gavenus from Burnsville, will receive $50,000 over the course of their four years at UNC Asheville.

"UNC Asheville's inaugural Selby and Richard McRae Scholars excel academically and as leaders in their communities. We welcome them to our University and look forward to supporting their academic potential, ingenuity, and leadership skills during this exciting time of their lives," said UNC Asheville Chancellor Nancy J. Cable.

Gillian Gavenus from Burnsville, a senior graduate at the North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics (NCSSM), who was accepted into the school's Senior Research Mentorship Program and worked with Dr. Stuart Pimm at Duke University assisting in his lab with research on how to prevent present-day extinctions.

She plans to continue her undergraduate education and research at UNC Asheville as an environmental studies major with a minor in biology working with Assistant Professor of Biology Graham Reynolds on National Geographic Society-funded projects. She aspires to be an environmental scientist, biologist or conservationist.

In addition to her academic accomplishments, which include a bronze medal for the National French Exam, acceptance into the US Naval Academy Summer STEM Program, membership in the National Honor Society and Mu Alpha Theta International Mathematics Honor Society, for which she has served as president, she also has served in many leadership and volunteer roles. As a senior, she served as a Resident Life Assistant on her dorm hall building a community on hall through active hall programming, acting as peer mediator, and serving as a resource for residents with academic or community related issues. As club leader for NCSSM Habitat for Humanity she coordinated builds, student recruitment and arranging transportation. She sings soprano in the Chamber Ensemble, is co-host of the popular Koffeehouse, a monthly student talent show, and serves as leader for Yoga Club.

While a student at Mountain Heritage High School (MHHS) she served as president of both the Math and Astronomy Clubs, activities coordinator for the Eco Club, and has volunteered with Blue Ridge Resource Conservation & Development taking water samples, organism samples, and supervising children's camp activities and hikes. She has coached youth league soccer, played Varsity soccer at MHHS and was a Varsity swimmer for NCSSM swim team. In 2019, Gavenus received the NC Governor's Volunteer Service Award for Yancey County.

Each McRae Scholar receives $10,000 in scholarship support each year for four years with an additional $10,000 to support study abroad, undergraduate research, and internships, which are all hallmarks of the historically strong liberal arts and sciences education at UNC Asheville.

The McRae Scholarships are funded by the Selby and Richard McRae Foundation through a gift of $250,000. It provides entering students with opportunities to acquire the skills, knowledge, and problem solving necessary to pursue their goals and take their places as leaders and engaged citizens in a rapidly changing society.

The McRae Scholars and Provost Scholarships are available to both in-state and out-of-state students and recognize undergraduate scholars with exceptional academic accomplishments, demonstrated leadership, and potential to be a pacesetter in their academic life and future beyond college.

The McRae Scholarship is one of many offered by UNC Asheville, with scholars chosen through a rigorous selection process. Finalists are also considered for Provost Scholarships, numerous academic department scholarships and the Pisgah Scholars Program, which is a comprehensive scholarship program to first-time applicants. Students seeking to transfer to UNC Asheville can also be considered for merit-based scholarships. To apply, go to unca.edu/apply.

The Mountain Heritage High School Class of 2020

Superintendent Kathy Amos

Letter to the MHHS Seniors - Class of 2020

The Mountain Heritage High School Class of 2020 is full of energy, creative ideas, and bright young adults. I have enjoyed watching each of you learn and grow in so many ways during this school year.

Parents and family members, I know you are so very proud of your children. Please know that I am honored to watch them receive their diplomas next weekend after so many years of hard work.

As you begin your new journey I have a few words of advice:

As the famous award winning country songwriter Reba McEntire said, "To succeed in life you need three things: a wishbone, a backbone and a funny bone."

Now for those of you in the medical profession or have just finished your anatomy class,

Mrs. McEntire does not mean this in the literal sense. We all possess each of these bones. A furcular, a series of vertebrae and a medial epicondyle of the humerus. However, not everyone possesses these specific characteristics. Or do you?

Think of the times you have made a wish in your life: after blowing out the candle on your birthday cake, while viewing a shooting star in the summer night sky, holding your breath while driving through a tunnel or pulling the largest piece of the wishbone after a holiday meal. Do these wishes come true?

Walt Disney tells us, "When you wish upon a star, makes no difference who you are, anything your heart desires will come true."

The reality and truth is, wishes can come true if you plan, prepare, set goals, focus, and put in the dedicated hard work. As a Mountain Heritage High School alumnus, you have proven that you, indeed, have a wishbone. You possess the ability to make your wishes come true. Continue to use that drive, energy, and perseverance to go forth and make positive things happen in this world.

When I think of someone with a backbone, I think about our American heroes. John Wayne, Muhammad Ali, Abraham Lincoln, Harriet Tubman or my very own grandfather who earned a Purple Heart in WW II after jumping with the 82nd Airborne on D-Day, come to mind. These characters are tough to the core.

The question is, when the going gets tough, do you have the strength, conviction, courage, and moral character to stand tall and do the right thing? Be a leader, have a backbone and do not give into every temptation of this world.

Research tells us that happier, healthy people have a good sense of humor. I have learned not only how to tell a joke but how to take a joke. Smile - and for goodness sake - laugh at yourself! There are times to be very serious and there are times to laugh out loud.

In the stressful days to come, keep that funny bone in use. Seek out those good, kind, positive, influential, faithful friends that you can laugh with and enjoy this life. Laughter is truly the best medicine.

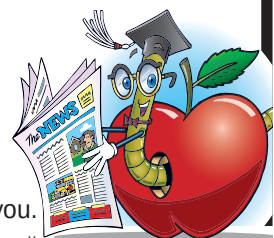

So as you travel along, take care of your young bones! Dust off your wishbone, backbone and funny bone.

Godspeed,
Kathy Amos,
Superintendent
Yancey County Schools
